Littell's Living Age,

E. LITTELL & CO.,

Corner of Tremont and, Bromfield Streets.

THIS work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's Museum of Foreign Literature, which has for fifty years received by the Packet for twenty years, but at the present time is twice as large and appears so often that it not only gives a full and fresh account of all the new publications, but also gives a large amount of valuable matter which were excluded by a monthly delay, but which retains its freshness and interest for many months after its publication, and thus forms a complete and perfect Library of Literature, History, Biography, Criticism, Poetry, Science, and Art, which is fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and stately Reviews, the Edinburgh, Quarterly and other Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine, are filled with Political Articles, Criticisms on Books, Science, Poetry, and Art, which are the result of the highest talent in Europe, and which are indispensable to every one who would keep himself informed of the rapid progress of the age.—to Statesmen, Divines, Lawyers and Physicians—to men of business and men of leisure,— will be found to be equally attractive and valuable. To the Wives and Children of such men, it will be found to be equally attractive and valuable, because in this day of cheap literature, it is impossible to guard against the admission of what is false and vicious in morals in any other way, than by furnishing a sufficient supply of the pure and attractive. The social and domestic affections must be gratified by weaving the best out from the chaff by which they are surrounded in the Periodical Literature of the day, or they will be supplied to the rising generation in forms and from sources dangerous to their purity.

The Living Age, as heretofore, will present the best productions of the Foreign Periodical Press, and also the freshest Literary Intelligence from the Literary Circles of the Old World. Its Department is in charge of CHARLES A. DANA, assisted by able correspondents in London, Paris, Constantinople, &c. &c. Its Gallery of Intelligence and its City Department are in charge of BAYARD TAYLOR, assisted by the efficient corps of Reporters. Nothing can be or will be acquired to render its news from all quarters by Telegraph Expresses or Steam ships complete, early and reliable as that of any other paper. Price $8 a year, $4 advance, or three months, $1.00.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Contains nearly all the non advertising matter of the Daily except such parts of local interest, or have been superseded by later and more exact advices before the Semi-Weekly is issued. All of the same articles with the same full and faithful account of what the world is doing, which gives it its claim to be a Journal of the Present.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Is issued every Thursday, and contains most of the matter in the Semi-Weekly, and is the cheapest and best paper in the world. Its circulation is now over forty thousand copies,—about two thirds of them on its Weekly List. Its subscription list is added to in advance and the paper stopped when the advance pay runs out, so that no man need fear that he is to be sent for a year without his consent, or that he will be thrown back upon the Agents named below and procure one of the new publications. It can be had every week and will well repay a perusal. The Weekly Tribune and Liberal Thinker should be worth to you ten times the cost, to you and family.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1851.

☞ It will be seen by referring to our telegraphic despatches to day, that the prospect is very cheering for the construction of the North American Railroad through the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. This great enterprise seems to meet with smiles from every quarter and to be subject to no head flaws. The State of Maine has done something in its behalf and can do more and Massachusetts is now invoked to give a little aid, and the request is so reasonable and the cause so appropriate, that she can hardly find it in her heart to refuse.

☞ The member of the apprentices' school who has adopted the signature of 'Justice,' employs language without justice in reference to the little that has been said in this paper relative to the school of which he is a member. He is unjust to his subject, to himself, to us and to an aged and right hearted correspondent, in what he says on that matter. If his other statements are of the same character, he should have taken the more appropriate name of 'Injustice.'

Henry Gray was instantly killed at Taunton Tuesday morning, by being run over by the locomotive attached to the freight train of cars Gray had just uncoupled the engine standing upon the bunting when he fell in front of the engine which ran over him and severed his head from his body. He was about 22 years of age and belonged to Lubec, Maine

A Clock for Sixty Cents.—Mr Chauncey Jerome of New Haven, Conn., has actually made a time piece, which he will warrant to keep good reckoning and which he sells for sixty cents at wholesale and one dollar at retail. The works are all made of brass. He makes upwards of eight hundred a day of these articles

A lad of 17, son of widow Angell of Pawtuxet, R. I. was shot through the heart on Saturday last, while on a gunning excursion One of his companions carried his gun carelessly, and it went off. The poor lad screamed, fell senseless, and died in ten minutes. His father died but a few months since

☞ Mr Gleason of Boston has issued the first number of a weekly paper, extravagantly rich in the silken quality of the paper and the neatness of the typography, it is entitled Gleason's Pictorial Drawing Room Companion, and is beautiful in its illustrations and readable in its matter a rea nice paper it is.

The Annual of Scientific Discovery or Year Book of facts in Science and Art.—Exhibiting the most important discoveries and improvements in Mechanics, Useful Arts, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronomy, Meteorology, Zoology, Botany, Mineralogy, Geology Geography, Antiquities together with a list of recent scientific publications a classified list of patents obituaries of eminent scientific men an index of important papers in scientific journals, reports &c Edited by David A. Wells, A M of the Lawrence Scientific School, Cambridge, and George Bliss, Jr. Boston Gould and Lincoln, 1851 pp 428

The very full and clear title of this work lays before the reader at the first glance, its general character and scope. It is not to be expected that every fact of interest in the scientific world shall find a place in a volume like this, but that the leading and most significant and essential facts shall be arranged and classified and condensed. There is great stir and progress in science and art in our world and he must be a busy man who can so gather up and preserve the constantly unfolding of discoveries as not to need such a posting up of the ledger account as is here given. All the great facts are here collected and a mass of information is concentrated here affording useful reading for any time, and for reference at all times It is a neat, valuable and interesting volume, and will be generally hailed, as was the volume for last year, with much pleasure by all who are interested in the progress of the race.

From Central America, by the Prometheus, we have the confirmation of the battle between San Salvador and Guatemala The battle commenced in the morning, and after four hours struggle Carrera put the enemy to flight The vanquished army lost 528 dead, 1000 guns and 200 prisoners.

The Guatemalians, in comparison, lost but few dead and wounded. Van Concelos, after the combat, abandoned the field with a part of his troops, and returned to San Jacinto, closely pursued by the enemy! Since the battle of Axrador, no other action has taken place between the belligerent armies.

Fire in Fairfield and Loss of Life.

We learn that the dwelling house of Mr Daniel Perkins in Fairfield was with nearly all of its contents destroyed by fire on the evening of Tuesday the 18th inst. And sad to relate the wife of Mr Perkins was so severely burned as to cause her death on the following day Mrs. P. had previously left the burning building in safety, but the thought struck her that one or more of her children were still in the house, being bewildered by the fright and regardless of her own danger, she rushed directly into the flames but was rescued in time to prevent immediate death. Her children had before left the house Mr Perkins was absent from home at the time the accident occurred The fire is supposed to have been communicated by a small crack in the bottom of Stove.—[Skowhegan Press.

☞ Moore Collins & Co Nos 12 14 and 16 Atkinson street are the largest manufacturers of Washing Fluid in America. They have invested a large capital in the business and are prepared to offer a pure and superb fluid article to the trade at wholesale and retail. The article produced by the above firm, is much valuable because a less quantity produces the same results and consequently costs much less than any other. We understand it is having an extensive sale at the present time.—This article will be represented at the World's Fair in London by fifty agents, and one of the best ways for us to get cheaper is to establish an agency at London.—[Boston Herald.

North American Railway.

This grand project contemplates a line of railway from Boston to Halifax, through the State of Maine and the British Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. So far as the interests of Boston and the State of Massachusetts are concerned, this is the most important project which has yet been started

The resources of Maine are but little understood by us, notwithstanding our long and intimate connection with her We know that she produces an immense quantity of lumber, and we have a gummering idea that she also raises some grain hay and potatoes, which find their way to our markets. And in truth these are about all we can give credit for at present, if we except lime But these products are no criterion of the capability of Maine. She has abundance of iron and slate, which only require transportation facilities to make them of immense value. The best farming land—millions of acres—have hardly yet been touched, because they are inaccessible and her best timber—soft and hard—is of little value for the same reason A railway through the centre of the state will give life to all these things, it will settle her rich farming lands, open her mines double the value of her timber, and increase her population in a ratio hitherto unknown in her history

She proposes to build this road, and as the undertaking is too vast for her means, she asks our aid She does not ask for our money or our bonds, but simply that we should give to her some of the wild lands which we own with her in common

Independent of the great public utility of the project, and of the important benefit which Maine will derive from its completion it strikes us that our own interest calls upon us to meet this request in a liberal spirit, for two reasons which stand out so distinctly that no one can fail to see their importance Massachusetts owns nearly 2,000 000 acres of land in Maine as a State, and the citizens probably own as much more—every acre of which will be doubled in value to say the least, by the building of this road. The second reason is, that the trade of Maine centres in Massachusetts, and cannot be diverted in any other direction therefore, whatever we do to develope the resources, increase the population, and add to the wealth of Maine tends directly to produce the same results in Massachusetts. Maine is now the best customer we have, by all odds, and sound policy dictates that we should do what we may, without great inconvenience to ourselves, to promote her prosperity, and increase her value as a customer

We hope therefore, that our Legislature will give to the petition for aid their serious consideration, and make such a response to it as will satisfy our sister, State that we may understand our own interest at least.—[Boston Journal

Barnum Sold. The N O Delta tells a good story of Mr Barnum, in an affair which happened the day before he left New Orleans. It appears that this great curiosity hunter had been struck, with an announcement of the poster at the corner of the streets that there was on exhibition in a certain street, a strange animal of the horse kind with a face like a child and a large revolving eye in the center of his forehead, after the most approved Cyclops fashion Barnum no sooner read this than he decided within his own mind that here was a case that called for his immediate attention and that, of the said unnatural animal could be had for money, he would purchase it. The Delta says

The entrance fee to the exhibition room be ing twenty five cents Barnum threw down a half dollar piece, and passed in, without waiting for the change He was too eager to see the wonder, to think of cents, for dollars and Cyclops were in his thoughts Judge of his surprise when Cyclops turned out to be the stuffed hide, of an exceedingly juvenile colt, the skin of whose head was distorted into a horrid semblance of a human face, and the forehead disfigured with a large and glaring eye of glass most villainously green. Barnum forgot himself so far, in being thus sold, that he rushed out of the exhibition room with a great oath, and demanded his money back. He received his twenty five cents change, and acknowledging that he had been taken in, after the fashion he had often taken others in—politely requested that so extraordinary a fact should not get into the papers.

Anecdote of Washington.—In an article contributed by H T Tuckerman to the last number of Graham's Magazine, we find the following anecdote of Washington, which we have never before seen in print

It is said that at a convivial party to which Washington was invited, his remarkable traits were the subject of earnest discussion among the company and it was insisted that no one, however intimate, would dare to take a liberty with him In a foolish moment of elation Governeur Morris accepted a bet that he would venture upon the experiment Accordingly, just before dinner was announced, as the guests stood in a group by the fire, he induced a somewhat lively chat and in the midst of it apparently from a casual impulse clapped Washington familiarly on the shoulder. The latter turned and gave him a look of such mild and dignified, yet grieved surprise, that even the self possession of his friend deserted him! He shrunk from that gaze of astonishment at his forgetfulness of respect, and the mirth of the company was instantly awed into silence.

The Providence Journal contains an address signed by nearly three hundred citizens of Providence recommending in the strongest terms, Josiah Chaffin for Governor, and Rowse Babcock for Lieut. Governor, (the Whig candidates) at the coming election Among the signers to the call are several of the friends of Gen James, the new Whig Senator from Rhode Island.

ENGLAND

The government of Lord John Russell is still very weak He cannot get his friends to rally around him and it is now fully anticipated that there will soon be a dissolution of parliament and a general election

On Tuesday evening last in the House of Commons the Ministers sustained another defeat upon the bill relating to the woods and forests—Lord Duncan moved a resolution demanding a reform in their management. This the government strenuously resisted but on a division there appeared for the proposed reform 120, for Ministry 119, so that what with their partial abandonment of the penal measure, their defeat upon Mr Locke King's motion of electoral reform and this defeat it is thought that they will not be able to hold together till after Easter

The Times frequently inserts keen and sarcastic remarks upon the present position of the government

The agitation on the part of the Catholics of both England and Ireland against the proposed penal measure of Lord John Russell continues unabated

The Protectionist leaders as well as their party in the country are making vigorous preparations for a general election in order, if possible, to secure such a majority in the House of Commons as will impose a 4s duty upon all foreign corn and breadstuffs

The process of receiving and arranging the articles to be exhibited in the Chrystal Palace is going on very satisfactorily and no doubt is now entertained but that the building will be opened at the proposed time in the month of May

A large body of Hungarians and Poles, refugees from the late struggle in Hungary, had arrived in Liverpool en route for America, but on their arrival from Turkey at Liverpool they were met by a deputation from the London Democratic Committee who have induced them to remain in England in order as they say to be at hand in case their aid should be required to assist the democratic cause in either France or Hungary The English Government have so far paid the board, lodging and other requisites of these men and in addition offers £2 to every man who will go to America A few of the Hungarians have accepted the offer but the Poles all refuse The local magistrates and the Mayor of Liverpool have had several interviews with them to persuade them to emigrate Public meetings have been held to raise subscriptions for them and it is proposed to have an amateure performance in the Theatre Royal for their benefit They are said to be a fine body of men and their firm quiet and orderly conduct in Liverpool has, it is also said, shed a lustre upon their names and made an impression in their favor which will not soon be forgotten

Liverpool, March 14

The unexpected increase in the receipts of cotton at the ports represented by the last steamer has again depressed our market ¼d per lb in the low and middling qualities of American, and fully ⅛ per lb in the better descriptions The Manchester Market has been irregular and in some instances a concession has been made to effect sales though generally manufacturers and spinners have shown considerable firmness, and in the last day or two there has been a better feeling with an increased demand for both yarn and goods. Sales of cotton for the week are estimated at 31,180 bales. The trade having taken the large proportion of 27,940 bales, leaving 2000 for speculation and 1250 bales for export. The sales to-day are 5000 The market closed steady

There is a slightly improved demand to-day for wheat and flour, though we cannot quote any improvement in prices. Indian Corn meal 14s. 6d per bbl.

SECOND DESPATCH.

The official letters from the Nova Scotia Railway Delegate now in England are not yet made public. The Halifax Sun says:—We have it on the most reliable authority and last even to lay before our fellow citizens, the gratifying news that the whole affair of the Railroad has been settled The mission of the Hon Mr Howe has been entirely successful The British Government had consented to guaranty the whole amount to build the railroad to Quebec and Montreal at 3½ per cent.

Mr Howe was in good spirits, nor was it apprehended that any change of ministry contingent upon the unsettled state of parties would in any wise affect the negotiations which had been virtually brought to a close The local Provincial governments have the power to connect with any branch railroad through the American Territory

FRANCE

We have but little news of moment from France by this arrival The weekly account of the Bank of France presents the commerce of that Republic in a most favorable point of view. It is shown that the Commercial bills offered and the amount of bullion in the bank almost equals the amount of notes in circulation

The celebration of the Carnival has also exercised a depressing influence upon the Commercial prosperity of the Capitol. The manufacturers and wholesale merchants complain that with the exception of a few English there are no fore gners in the city The accounts from the agricultural districts, however, are more favorable, for it appears that the large stocks of wheat formerly held at Beauce are nearly exhausted and that the recent large exports to England induce the farmers to look for higher prices

During the past year we learn from official reports that the commerce of the Zollverein has increased considerably There has been a falling off in the custom receipts of sugar, coffee and raw materials but this is more than compensated for in the increase of manufactured goods

From Cassel we have the following, terse but graphic description of the state of affairs

The political conflicts seems to be degenerating into a series of vulgar quarrels between Prince, officers, ministers chamber and subordinates who abuse each other with Provincial intensity. The truth of this cannot be doubted when we read the following latest proclamation from Baron Haynau to the officers of the Hessian army of Cassel This Hungarian it should be remarked, is a near relation to the Austrian Butcher

Gents I have summoned you here to tell you that I have been commissioned by his Royal Highness to crush under foot that pernicious gang that threatens the welfare of the State.

Sirs The question is who is to rule This Godabandoned, Godless, pernicious band, or the government which God has set up? We shall soon decide this question here in Cassel sirs, in this little State The throne is in danger, and all thrones in Europe look here and upon us, upon this little army! I ask you not if you will obey—it is not for that that I have called you together. You must obey for he who obeys not shall have his sold er's coat pulled off his back, and have a blouse put on him It is nothing to you whether the orders given to you, sir, are constitutional or not His Royal Highness has sworn to the Constitution, and I have full power from him I am the Constitution for you sirs, I! If any of you prefer the smile of that gang or the hand of traitors to the favor of your prince whom God hath set up, I will pull his coat from off his back and put a blouse on him.—Gents, your servant'

The Wonder of the Age!

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!

The Only Genuine and Original

NORTH AMERICAN ELECTRIC

WASHING FLUID,

For Washing in either Hard or Soft Water.

THIS is the only genuine article to be found in the world and possesses double the power of anything ever discovered for washing clothes at a trifle expense doing away with washboards at once In fact it seems to be the long sought philosopher stone or universal solvent seeming a magical preparation its operation being of the most astonishing character) A common sized washing may be done with one gill of the Fluid in less than two hours It softens and removes the dirt, leaving the articles of the most brilliant whiteness, it being as harmless in its operations as pure water and clothing will wear much longer than when rubbed to pieces by the common method of washing

This Fluid is a powerful agent, to be used in all cases where soap is required particularly for cleaning milk utensils cleaning windows and paint scouring floors, in short it is beyond a precedent as its use is universal in the washing world

P S—All Colored Goods are rendered brighter by being washed in this Fluid all Woolens are less liable to shrink and thereby rendered much softer to the old way of washing

None genuine unless the Labels contain their Signature

The above article is warranted by the Manufacturers not to contain soda lime camphene burning fluid or acids of any kind but to be purely an alkaline preparation of the most powerful character, possessing more than double the washing power of anything ever discovered being perfectly harmless in vapor without possessing the caustic properties of the miserable articles which flood the market and in many instances dangerous to the people to that degree that they are unwilling to try a good article when it really is to be found The proprietors only ask a fair trial of this article and are perfectly willing to forfeit any amount for a single failure in any instance where it is used

THE Great American Remedy

FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, has now been so long before the public, and its reputation so well established, both from recommendations of Physicians, and from the invariable testimony of its infallible virtues by all who have used it, that to relate has become immensely large, and it must very soon supercede the use of every other article named for the same and kindred complaints. As a family medicine, it can never be outdone. In double the usual dose it almost invariably vomits the child in the first stages of croup, and relieves and quiets it immediately. For quite a number of years it has been the favorite and universal remedy in all the cases named, of one of the most celebrated and skillful Physicians.

Many years of experience and observation in a Hundred Thousand cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, &c., have served to the undoubted satisfaction of all persons who have become acquainted with this admirable remedy, that it is a certain, safe and speedy, but sure remedy for the Lungs, than any other Remedy in the World. We know, however, that it is said by some that Consumption cannot be cured—but that the opinion of so many of the best men, not always to speak well of each other, is still said, and do assert, as a fact, which can be proved in thousands of cases, that the medicine has cured them, or in Prudence with, Know that the diseases affected, were called Incurable Consumptions, and which were preceded with symptoms that resembled, and were in all respects like the symptoms of those who die, and when dead were said to have died with the fatal disease, Consumption. This Balsam has cured thousands of persons who were said to be hopelessly afflicted—who had Acute, or Inflammatory Coughs—Pain in the Breast, Side, and Back—Difficulty of Breathing—Profuse Expectoration—Night Sweats—Asthma—Bronchitis—Spitting of Blood—Hoarseness—Tickling in the Throat—Loss of Voice—Influenza—Whooping Cough—Croup—Pain in the Limbs—Lumbago—Rheumatism—Neuralgia—and all diseases of the Throat, Chest, Lungs and Liver, which if not relieved, lead to Consumption and Death. This Balsam has cured thousands
